NOTE VERBALE

The Asia-Pacific Space Cooperation Organization (APSCO) presents its compliments to the Ministry of Defence, People’s Republic of Bangladesh and has the honor to inform the following:

Asia-Pacific Space Cooperation Organization (APSCO), Northwestern Polytechnical University (NPU) and Belt and Road Aerospace Innovation Alliance (BRAIA) are planning to jointly organize the 2nd China Microsatellite Symposium during November 19-20, 2020 in Xi’an, China. The theme of this symposium is “Linking the World • Soaring the Space”. The Symposium will consist of both online and on-site activities.

The online activity mainly includes the series of aerospace science and technology video lectures. Renowned experts in the field of microsatellite will be invited to conduct leading-edge video lectures covering the general and key technologies and applications of microsatellites. APSCO and NPU will jointly establish committee for the Symposium to evaluate the contents of the video. Qualified video lectures will be released through the official website of the China Microsatellite Symposium before mid-November, 2020.

In this connection, APSCO would like to call for abstracts from Member States for preliminary preparation of video lecture for the Symposium in following themes:

1. Microsatellite general scheme design
2. Microsatellite component design
3. Microsatellite mission design
4. Microsatellite payload design
5. Microsatellite application

It would be highly appreciated if interested experts (not exceed two from each Member State) send one page abstract (not exceed 250 words) of the video back with Curriculum Vitae (CV) to the APSCO Secretariat to the Contact person: Jessica Zhuang, Department of Education and Training, Asia-Pacific Space Cooperation Organization (APSCO), Address: Building 13&14, Section 3, No.188, South West Fourth Ring, Fengtai District, Beijing 100070, China, Tel: 86 10 6370 2677 Ext. 405, Fax: 86 10 6370 2286, E-mail: jessica@apsco.int no later than 31 August, 2020. The APSCO Secretariat will inform related experts to prepare video after the committee evaluates contents of abstracts and recommends the topic for inclusion in the Agenda.

APSCO would like to avail itself of this opportunity to renew to the Ministry of Defence, People’s Republic of Bangladesh the assurances of its highest considerations.
